

The Dr Lee Kai Hung CBE DL Cultural Bursary Showcase 2023

Dr Lee Kai Hung CBE DL Cultural Bursary supports UK students to gain greater knowledge and understanding of Chinese culture. In 2023, bursaries were awarded to selected students from across the Manchester School of Art, Manchester Fashion Institute and The Manchester Writing School. All schools sit within the Faculty of Arts and Humanities at Manchester Metropolitan University.

"The Cultural bursary has enabled me to venture into research and exploration I would have not done otherwise... the opportunity has pushed me to take new avenues in my exploration and I have found the experience both mind opening and enriching"

Comment provided by Bursary awardee in 2022.

Bursary Showcase 2023

In Grosvenor East Open Space 3rd Floor, Manchester Metropolitan University.

Opening event with refreshments on Wednesday 18th October 16:30-18:30

The showcase will be open daily (except Sundays) until Thursday 9th November 2023

The Bursary Showcase 2023 has been curated by bursary awardee Jenna Eady (MA Contemporary Curating). Jenna has designed the showcase under the title theme of Exchange.

Exchange is a showcase of the interdisciplinary research and talents of ten postgraduate students from the Faculty of Arts and Humanities at Manchester Metropolitan University.

“交换” (Exchange) 是今秋即将在英国曼彻斯特开幕的当代艺术和文化展览，其将展示曼彻斯特都会大学十名研究生的跨学科研究成果和才华。

Bursary Awardees

Katie Bamford – MA Textiles
Nicola Bolton - MA Craft
Rohan Etchingham – MA Interior Design
Jenna Eady – MA Contemporary Curating
Finley Hunt - MA Games Art
Holly Haynes – MSc Luxury Fashion Management
Sarah Kirk – MA Craft
Nathaniel Laydon – MA Creative Writing
Molly Morgan – MFA Creative Writing
Oliver Perera – MSc Fashion Buying and Merchandising

Manchester and China have a deeply intertwined history, the migration of the Chinese population in the 20th Century began transcultural integration. With the intent to grow intercultural connections, these students were awarded generous bursaries from Dr Lee Kai Hung CBE DL to engage with their chosen elements of Chinese culture during their final stage of postgraduate study. The far-sighted ambitions of the Dr Lee Kai Hung CBE DL Bursary have created the opportunity for creative postgraduate students within the Faculty of Arts and Humanities at Manchester Metropolitan University to develop their final projects in a meaningful and decisive way.

中国与曼彻斯特有着深刻交织的历史。20 世纪中国人口的迁移揭开了跨文化融合的帷幕。这些学生荣获 Lee Kai Hung 博士基金会慷慨颁发的奖学金，在研究生学习的最后阶段投身到他们所选择的中国文化元素当中去。李启鸿博士基金的远见卓识，为这些学生创造了以果决有益的方式发展他们的研究项目的机会。

Presenting themes of global community, materiality and process, identity, human connection, and sustainability, the awardees present profound expressions related to their research within this exhibition. The learning and engagement with Chinese culture has created an opportunity to build new local and international relationships. Representing their knowledge and passion for cultural learning. A group of awardees ran facilitating workshops for the public at the ESEA Contemporary gallery in Manchester as a part of their projects'.

这些艺术家将以全球社会、实质性和过程、身份认同、人与人之间的联系和可持续性为主题，在这次展览中对他们的研究进行深刻表达。有关中国文化的学习和接触为建立新的本土和国际关系创造了机会。一些艺术家将在今年 8 月和 9 月在 ESEA 当代画廊为公众举办工作坊，表现他们的知识和对文化学习的热情。

The final exhibition will be the ultimate knowledge-transfer experience, a chance for understanding, connection, and reflection on what we can do to continue creating new global friendships.

最终的展览将是一次终极的知识传播经历，也是一次机会——让我们去理解、联系和反思要采取什么样的行动来持续建立新的全球化的友谊。
